NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Advices from Lima of Lanuary 25th confirm the report that a creating and occupation was effected in a manner honorable to all concerned. In concert with the President of the French Republic, I have even my careful attention to the affairs of cypt, where the existing arrangements important of the president of the french Republic, I have the existing arrangements important of the president of the french Republic, I have the existing arrangements important of the president of the french Republic, I have the existing arrangements important of the president of the french Republic, I have the existing arrangements important of the president of the french Republic, I have the existing arrangements important of the president of the president of the french Republic, I have the president of the french Republic of pablished, whether by firmans of Sultan or by property valued at $5,000,000 was destroyed. Various international engagements, in a spirit favorable to the good government of that sack the town after entering it.

I have pleasure in informing you that the esteration of peace beyond the northwestern frontiers of India, together with the continued internal tranquility, the plentiful seasons and be increase of revenue, has enabled my Got-present in India to recently the works of while utility which had been supposed and sublic utility which had been suspended, and Porter will return, and in a few days preserve its attention to measures for further die passage of a bill restoring him to hi aprovement of the condition of the people. The Convention with Transvaal has been ified by a representation in the Assembly, nd I have seen no reason to qualify my an-icipations of its advantageous working. I ave, however, to regret that although hostiliies have not been renewed in Basuto, the Estimates for the service of the year in South Africa are in an advanced stage of prepara-tion and will be promptly submitted.

My communications with France on the sub-ject of a new commercial fresty have not been My communications with France on the subject of a new commercial treaty have not been closed. They will still be prosecuted by me.

The trade of the country, both domestic and foreign, has for some time been improving, the mildness of the winter has been eminently suited to furming operations, and better prospects are, I trust, thus opened for the classes immediately concerned in agriculture. The condition of Ireland at this time as com-ared with that which I described at the beguming of last year, shows signs of improvement and encourages the hope that perseverance in the course you have pursued, will be rewarded with the happy results which are so much to be desired. Justice has been adminstered with greater efficarly; and the infimida-tion which had been employed to deter the occupiers of land from the fulfilling of their obligations and from availing themselves of the act of last session shows, upon the whole, diminished force. My efforts, through the bounty of Providence, have been favored by an arvest in that portion of the Kingbe provisions of the ordinary law, I have not resitated, under the painful necessity of the case, to employ largely the exceptional powers nitrusted to me for the protection of life and property, by the two acts of last session. You will be invited to deal with proposals the establishment in England and Welsh unities of the local self-government, which has so long been enjoyed by towns, together with enlarged powers of the administration, and of financial changes, which will give you opportunity of considering, both as to the xes in relief of local charges.
